Why BDC Pro?

Unlike legacy BDC systems, BDC Pro is built for modern dealership operations. It seamlessly connects every communication channel — phone, text, email, and chat — into a unified, memory-driven AI assistant that never forgets a customer. It works 24/7, across every department, delivering consistent follow-up and brand-aligned messaging without adding headcount.

Persistent Memory— Intelligent Conversations

BDC Pro doesn't just respond — it remembers. Every touchpoint is retained and referenced in future interactions, so customers don't have to repeat themselves. That context carries across departments, channels, and even weeks between contacts. Whether they call, text, or email, your customers experience seamless engagement.

Real Dealers Real Results

When Performance Matters, Agentic AI Delivers

In today's high-volume, high-expectation dealership environment, response time and follow-through directly impact CSI scores, service retention, and revenue. That's where BDC Pro shines. More than just a virtual assistant, our AI-powered system operates across all dealership channels — phone, SMS, email, and chat — with unified conversation management and persistent memory that spans every touchpoint.

Backed by a real-time analytics dashboard, managers gain full visibility into customer engagement, sentiment trends, and appointment outcomes. The result? Success stories like our NJ/NYC Mitsubishi dealership, where the AI agent "Mandy" handled over 6,000 calls in 45 days, lifting lead-to-sale conversions by 63% — without adding a single employee.
